COFFEE'S ALWAYS HOT.

HOLD PLEASE. · THE DESK IS LIVE

The penthouse line never rings twice.

Welcome to Robinhood Tower. I'm the StonkSecretary. $holdplease while we direct you to the next available $StonkBroker. Meme gossip 24/7. Scotch restocked before Monday. That printer had it coming. Interns just clocked in.

FROM THE DESK

Another week dealing with the StonkBros. I better restock the scotch before Monday morning.

CLOCK-IN / WAGES DESK
